great relief. It has entirely restored me to health." James French, Atchison, Kans., writes: "To all persons suffering from Liver Complaint, I would strongly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with a disease of the liver for nearly two years, when a friend advised me to take this medicine. It gave prompt relief, and has cured me." Mrs. H. M. Kidder, 41 Dwight st., Boston, Mass., writes: "For several years I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family. I never feel safe, even without it. As a liver medicine and general purifier of the blood, it has no equal." Mrs. A. B. Allen, Winterpock, Va., writes: "My youngest child, two years of age, was taken with Bowel Complaint, which we could not cure. We tried many remedies, but he continued to grow worse, and finally became so reduced in flesh that we could only move him upon a pillow. It was suggested by one of the doctors that Scrofula might be the cause of the trouble. We procured a bottle of and commenced giving it to him. It surely worked wonders, for, in a short time, he was completely cured."

At Home

ANARCHISTS AND LABOR.

THE EAGERLY SOUGHT FOR PARSONS WRITES A LETTER.

He Reiterates the Powdered Chestnut that Dynamite Must Reign King. That Anarchists May Loot the Treasuries. False Riot Alarm—Labor Notes.

CHICAGO, May 20.—The editor of a leading daily here received a letter last night from Anarchist Parsons in reply to an article appearing in the paper on the treatment of mobs, in which the much-wanted Parsons says: "Mankind, mob or military, are sustained in their actions by the majority of the brain fitted at the time by circumstances they appreciate to control. Thoroughly educate the community physically, mentally, morally, industrially, politically. A correct instruction in and method of application of a righteously inculcated disposition will result in justice multum in parvo. The lame cured will throw away their crutches."

"Men of enterprise and labor, many of your kind, wise and otherwise, are sinking in the sluggish current of the river of despair. The possessors of the life-saving apparatus on shore are refusing to see them because they own them and claim the only right to use the same, and refuse to satisfy the brute force of a not completely educated public sense of property rights. The brute force of the near future will be arbitration, the acceleration of its adoption, hurried probably by the dangerous brute force of despair—dynamite. This world is a garden; we must keep hoeing out the weeds; the proud, the powerful and otherwise obnoxious, so the useful plants will have a better chance to exalt their existence. This struggle will obtain and result that the fittest survive."

Chicago Lumbermen.

CHICAGO, May 20.—The great strike in the lumber district is practically settled. The dead lock is at end, and the bottom has fallen entirely out of the obstruction to legitimate traffic. More chimneys in the district were emitting black smoke this morning than at any time within the last fortnight. Every yard was working with all the hands that could be used, and every boss was besieged with more applications for employment than he could possibly provide for. The planing mills, box factories, and sash, door and blind establishments were all running as usual.

It is estimated that fully two-thirds of the capacity of the concerns in the district was in operation to-day. For the first time since the strike teamsters drawing lumber were everywhere seen at work. There was a general air of revival throughout the region. There was no further apprehension of trouble from the strikers, and the extra police patrol was withdrawn. The only guard kept on duty was the Human street squad of seventy-five patrolmen. "If there is any further trouble now," said a lumberman, "it will come from the men who are seeking employment and not finding any one willing to take them back."

The Riot Cases.

CHICAGO, May 20.—The grand jury began work on the riot cases promptly at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. All the witnesses who have testified before the several inquests on the dead victims were present, and their testimony will be taken and considered first. The short-hand reports of their statements will be laid before the jury as collateral evidence. The other witnesses, whose testimony will bear directly on the cases of Spies, Schwab, Fielden and Louis Ling, will then be heard, and the findings in these cases made up. After this the lesser rascals, who are charged only with riot, of whom there are fifteen or twenty, will receive attention. The states attorney seems to feel very confident that he can make a very strong case against the arch offenders.

Mr. Powderly.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., May 20.—Grand Master Workman Powderly spent an hour in this city yesterday with Committee-men Hayes before starting for the west. He was surrounded during the entire time by admiring Knights of Labor, and had a general talk with the local leaders. He said that the great obstacle in the way of workingmen was ignorance, not only among some of the recently elected knights who are injudicious in their actions, but also among outsiders, who misunderstood the objects and principles of the order.

At Troy, N. Y.

TROY, N. Y., May 20.—Although the lock-out is in force in all the Troy collar shops with the exception of that of Straithammer & Co., the other manufacturers, George I. Ide excepted freely admit that it is not likely to be of long duration. Either the other manufacturers must come down to the Ide prices or Ide must come up to theirs. In the latter event the trouble would cease at once. It is believed that Ide will be forced to yield, having all the employees and the majority of the manufacturers against him in this struggle.

Preparing for Mobs.

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—The police authorities late last night called all reserves out and took a large number of patrolmen from the downtown districts and sent about one hundred men each to the brewery of Joseph Schneider at the junction of Chouteau, Missouri and Mississippi avenues, and to that of Charles G. Stiefel, at Fourth and Mallanaphy streets, to guard the property against an apprehended assault. There is trouble between Messrs. Schneider and Stiefel and their employees and threats are said to have been made by the latter.

False Riot Alarm.

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—The report of a riot here last night was without foundation. There was a meeting of striking brewers and some harsh language was indulged in, and as a measure of abundant precaution the police were sent for, giving rise to the exaggerated rumor of a disturbance. There was no violence whatever.

Strike Declared Off.

CUMBERLAND, Md., May 20.—All the coal miners in the Cumberland region were represented at the meeting held yesterday, at Loneconing. It was voted 32 to 81 to resume work at the old rate of forty cents per ton. The strike was thereupon declared off.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION.

Several Persons Killed and Injured by the Combustion of Drugs.

NEW YORK, May 20.—At half-past 11 yesterday morning a loud explosion startled the upper section of Hoboken, N. J., crashing glass and a mass of flame following added to the excitement. Immediately an alarm was sent out to the department, and quickly the men responded. The explosion had occurred on the third floor of the three-story brick house at the corner of Washington and Seventh streets. On the bottom floor is the handsome drug store, formerly owned by Charles Am Ende, whose fatal error in putting up morphine instead of quinine, recently resulted in the death of the Misses Holtz. The store is now owned by Joseph Frank, Am Ende's former senior clerk.

The explosion was caused by some drugs. The employees on the second floor escaped in safety but Joseph Heiser, Edward Perry and John Hoffman were completely shut off from escape. They hung out of the windows and loudly and piteously cried for help. Heiser lost his hold and fell to the pavement below. He was horribly mangled. All three were frightfully bruised and their injuries will probably prove fatal. They were taken to St. Mary's hospital. Firemen Hedges fell while on the road to the fire and was run over by the heavy apparatus, both legs being crushed, and he will in all likelihood die. The building was completely ruined; loss, $5,000.

"THE CREATION" BY HAYDN.

SUPPLEMENTED BY BEETHOVEN'S SYMPHONY.

Music Hall, in Cincinnati, the Scene of an Animated and Brilliant Gathering of the Masters and Devotees of Music and Fashion—The Mass in B Minor.

CINCINNATI, May 20.—The opening of the Seventh May Festival Tuesday night must certainly have fulfilled the expectations of the directors and gratified the most enthusiastic friends of this institution, in which all Cincinnatians take a commendable pride. There seemed to be a general combination of surroundings to make the inauguration an auspicious one in every particular. A more delightful evening could not be born of the imagination. The air was cool and bracing, and the moon never looked from a fairer heaven.

The scene within the building was one that compared with any of the many notable gatherings that the massive edifice has held. But few vacant seats could be seen, and those only in the corners on the extreme right and left, and in the topmost tier. While possibly not as remarkable in fashionable appearance as some audiences Cincinnati has known, it is still in this respect well worthy of mention. Leaders in all circles and professions were out in force. Many of the ladies were decked in lively colors though the quiet shades prevailed with the majority. The gentlemen were generally well in full dress.

The Thomas orchestra, reinforced by virtuosi of Cincinnati, was stationed, as usual, in the immediate front of the chorus. A vast audience of representative people stretched from the stage to the doors and filled all the galleries.

With the usual promptness the concert began. Theodore Thomas, graceful, self-poised, in thorough command of himself and his work, as of yore, had the usual warm greeting. If there be any change in the great leader it is only that the little round white spot on the back of his head has increased in size—the half-dollar has enlarged to the dimensions of an orange; that is all, for he wears his years gracefully.

Whitney had the usual heartfelt welcome, Candius was not forgotten, and Miss Lilli Lehmann enjoyed the courtesy which Cincinnati extends to the distinguished stranger, until presently her great gift of song had won all hearts and she had become a friend, favorite. It is questionable whether she prized more the enthusiasm of her newly conquered admirers or the remembrance which came from far-off Berlin in the shape of a surprise basket of flowers and the congratulations of her comrade in the royal opera, Charlotte Hoffman.

Last night occurred the event of the week in the presentation of the Mass in B minor of Sebastian Bach. It was in fact an epoch in the history of the musical world, since this the first time the great work has been presented with a grand chorus.

A MADMAN'S LEAP.

Jumping From a Flying Passenger Train. Instantly Killed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 20.—A shocking accident occurred on the Short Line railway, near Glencoe station, forty miles from Louisville. The fast passenger train from Cincinnati was running round a curve at the rate of forty miles an hour, when a tall and fine-looking man about fifty years old, who had been sitting on a seat with two other men, sprang to his feet with a mad shriek, and dashed to the front door of the coach. He stood for a moment on the platform and then with another wild shriek plunged head foremost into space. He struck the side of the deep cut through which the train was passing, and, rebounding, his body rolled under the wheels. The train was stopped quickly and the ghastly remains were picked up from the track, and placed in a baggage car.

The suicide was E. F. Walker, aged forty-nine years, once a prominent and highly respected citizen of Louisville. He had been confined in a sanitarium in Cincinnati for several months and was being brought to the Anchorage lunatic asylum near Louisville. His madness was the result of sunstroke.

In Detroit.

DETROIT, May 20.—All the Pullman shop strikers returned to work, yesterday, on the old terms. This about breaks up the eight-hour movement here.

For Destroying 100 Ballots.

CINCINNATI, May 20.—The late special grand jury found two indictments against Officer John P. Evans, one for destroying 100 ballots in Precinct F, Ninth ward, and one for putting 100 false ballots in the same ballot box. He appeared in Judge Maxwell's court and gave bond in the sum of $1,500 on each indictment.

CAPITALE CHIT-CHAT.

NUMEROUS BILLS REPORTED AND CALENDARED IN THE HOUSE.

Jury Fees and Bridges, Lands and Offices, Postoffices and Foreign Mail Service—A Congressional Committee—Compliments of Secretary Lamar—National.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, reported adversely the resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for information as to whether the fees of witnesses and jurors for 1883 and prior years been paid. Laid on table.

Mr. Weaver, of Nebraska, reported bill authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi at Dubuque, Iowa. Calendar.

Mr. Van Eaton, of Mississippi, reported reported back the senate bill forfeiting certain lands granted to the state of Iowa, and in the construction of railroads. Calendar.

Mr. Hale, of Missouri, reported back the senate bill authorizing the Denison & Washita Railroad company to construct a road in the Indian Territory. Calendar.

Mr. Dibble, of South Carolina, reported joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment, creating and defining the office of second vice-president of the United States. Calendar.

The house then went into committee of the whole on senate amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill.

Mr. Millard, of New York, briefly advocated the foreign mail service amendment contending that it would have a beneficial effect on American commerce.

Mr. Phelps, of New Jersey, said that the amendment and the vote by which it was adopted in the senate were an encouragement to the friends of American shipping.

Mr. Blount interrupted with the point that it was not in order to refer to the action of the senate.

Mr. Phelps suggested that the gentleman should be proud and not ashamed that eight Democratic senators had had the courage to vote for the amendment. He had read from the public prints that eight Democratic senators had voted to give new steamships to American commerce and new ports to American manufacturers.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—In the senate to-day Mr. Hoar gave notice that to-morrow morning he would call up the bill disposing of the Alabama awards.

Mr. Frye called up the Staten Island bridge bill.

Mr. Sewell objected to its consideration during the morning hour. Notwithstanding the objection Mr. Frye moved that the bill be taken up. This motion prevailed and the senate proceeded to consider the measure.

Mr. McPherson moved an amendment providing for a tunnel instead of a bridge. He spoke in support of his amendment, maintaining that a tunnel and not a bridge was the most feasible and proper thing for railway transit in the place indicated. He would vote against the bill unless properly awarded. He did not oppose the bill on account of its favoring any particular railroad, but because it would injure the facilities for commerce in the waters of New Jersey.

Very Complimentary.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Secretary Lamar has written a very complimentary letter to ex-Assistant Secretary Jenks, of the department of the interior, which concludes as follows: "By your retirement the public service will lose a pure and able officer, whose clear judgment and broad experience have been of the highest value in the administration of the affairs of this department."

A Committee on the Deep.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The secretary of the navy has placed the United States steamer Dispatch, which arrived here on Monday evening, at the service of the senate and house committees on Indian affairs, who desire to inspect the school at Hampton, Va. The party will sail from Washington this evening.

Mr. McLean Better.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Washington M. Lean was so much improved in health to-day that he took a lengthy drive this morning, and was much refreshed thereby.

Mr. Arthur.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Ex-president Arthur did not arise until 10 o'clock this morning. He is not so well as on yesterday.

ARMED AID FOR IRELAND.

The New York Regiment that Rumor Says Will Join the Clash.

NEW YORK, May 20.—In reference to the dispatch cabled from London that a New York regiment had offered to go to Ulster in the event of trouble between the Orangemen and Nationalists, Col. Cavagnagh, of the Sixty-ninth regiment, to which the dispatch is supposed to refer, said to a reporter: "It would be indiscreet for me to give you any information upon this matter. Why our countrymen at the other side should have given the contents of this dispatch to the public which was meant for them alone, I am at loss to understand."

"But how would such an army get into Ireland?"

"A hundred times more probable than that a few thousand Ulster Orangemen could get to London, which they threatened to do. I hope the painful necessity will not be ours of having to chastise these Ulster loyalists so-called, but if it should I warrant you they will never get the better of it."

Councillor Delahanty, vice-president of the municipal council of the Irish National league said: "The liberty of a nation is concerned and the proposition to send armed aid to Ireland if the Orangemen did anything but threaten is too grave to be discussed openly. You will soon know the truth of the dispatch, however, should the Orangemen, who are real cowards, attempt any hostile move. But don't forget there are enough Nationalists in Ulster alone to sweep them into the sea."

Deputies Discharged.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 20.—United States Marshal Weber has telegraphed an order to East St. Louis, discharging the deputies who have been on duty there protecting the property of the Wabash railroad.

AWFUL HOLOCAUST.

Four Children Slowly Roasted Alive—Another Human Offering.

AKRON, O., May 20.—The little home of Mrs. Mary Mooney, situated about a mile north of this city, is a mass of ruins and in a tub in the yard are the charred and frightfully disfigured bodies of her four children, Thomas, Julia, Nellie and Lawrence, their ages ranging from twelve to four years.

The fire broke out about midnight from an overheated stove, and when Mrs. Mooney awoke the building was enveloped in flames. She took the babe in her arms, and calling to the other children to follow her, jumped from a window and escaped with the child with slight injuries. Her brother-in-law, Lawrence Mooney, and her son, sleeping in a different part of the house, also made their escape.

Lawrence Mooney, in trying to rescue the other children who were unable to reach the window, received injuries from which it is feared he will die. The cries of the little ones, as they were being slowly burned to death, were heartrending in the extreme. Mrs. Mooney is almost bereft of reason, and a guard is kept over her to prevent her taking her own life.

Two Children Perish.

CAMBRIDGE, Md., May 20.—The house of John Baltimore, colored, in Linkwood district, was burned last night, and his two children, aged three and eight years, were consumed with the building.

CHURCH SCANDAL.

A Change in the Sextonship—In the Courts. Appeal to Rome.

NEW ORLEANS, May 20.—Some weeks ago considerable scandal was caused in the Catholic church here by the suit at law over the sextonship of the church cemeteries. It was shown that the Rev. Mgr. Allen, priest of St. Patrick's church, had sold the office to one Healey for $2,000. Archbishop Leroy had removed the latter and appointed one Dillon, on recommendation from a committee of lot owners. Judge Richter decided against the priest, taking occasion to denounce him as unworthy of belief. Mgr. Allen, still refusing to turn over the books, plans, etc., in his possession to Dillon, Archbishop Leroy has suspended him from his functions as priest of St. Patrick's.

Allen still refuses to surrender the documents, and declares that he cannot be suspended except for some chance fault, and he has committed none. He has already appealed to Rome, and will leave to-morrow to lay his case before the supreme pontiff. He is, he declares, by virtue of his grade of monsignor, a member of the pope's household, a dignity nearly equal to that of the archbishop. Father Allen is not a popular prelate, and he has no public sympathy with him in this instance.

STRICTLY BUSINESS.

The Sky Indications are That There Will be Fish "Hooked."

PORTLAND, Me., May 20.—The reported seizure of the third American vessel by the Canadians has raised a storm here. The members of the fishing exchanges here and at Gloucester met and both adopted resolutions calling upon all fishermen to resist further seizure by force. The owners decided to send all vessels out in future armed and a subscription was started to buy cannon. The owners of the Dougherty, held at Englishtown, Cape Breton, have purchased a six-pound rifled pivot gun for their new vessel now fitted out. The feeling is to begin open hostilities, thus compelling the United States government to take some decisive step. Portland fishermen this morning sent the captain of the Dougherty this dispatch: "If United States can't help you we will. Portland does not forget her citizens. We are coming to your aid." The excitement everywhere is intense.

Cincinnati Exposition.

CINCINNATI, May 20.—The Cincinnati Industrial exposition opens September 1, and closes October 9. The board of commissioners propose to make this display the first of new system—the representative exhibition of industry and art, manufactures, inventions and products, which will be open to the world. The honorable record attained by these expositions since 1870, under the auspices of the chamber of commerce, board of trade and Ohio Mechanics' institute will be fully maintained. No competitive awards. All articles will be entered for exhibition only.

Gone Wrong at Fergus Falls.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., May 20.—The grand jury has found indictments against Henry Van Arman and George N. Cornwall, of New York, for obtaining money under false pretenses. The first named is a prominent citizen of New York and an ex-congressman. Warrants for the arrest of both are now in the hands of the sheriff, awaiting a requisition from the governor. Henry Van Arman is a physician of Franklinville, New York. He was elected to the Thirty-ninth congress, and re-elected to the Fortieth congress. He is a Republican.

Pat Sheedy Tries It.

CHICAGO, May 20.—Patrick Sheedy, who has undertaken the management of John L. Sullivan yesterday, cabled the London backers of Jim Smith, the English heavy weight, offering their manager a guarantee of $3,000 to come to America and meet Sullivan, for six rounds in the Polo grounds, New York, July 4th next. James Mutrie, of the New York ball club, writes Mr. Sheedy that the grounds can be secured for that date, and that an attendance of fully 25,000 people may be anticipated.

Another Boodler Taken In.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Ex-Alderman Charles McCabe was arrested on an execution warrant by one of Sheriff Grant's men. The execution was used at the instance of Patrick Griffin, who holds a judgment against McCabe for money differences arising upon a difference in business matters. McCabe is a member of the famous boodler board of 1884.

An association of textile manufacturers, representing $150,000,000 capital, has been formed in Philadelphia. The object is a combination of interests regarding labor.
